Student Life

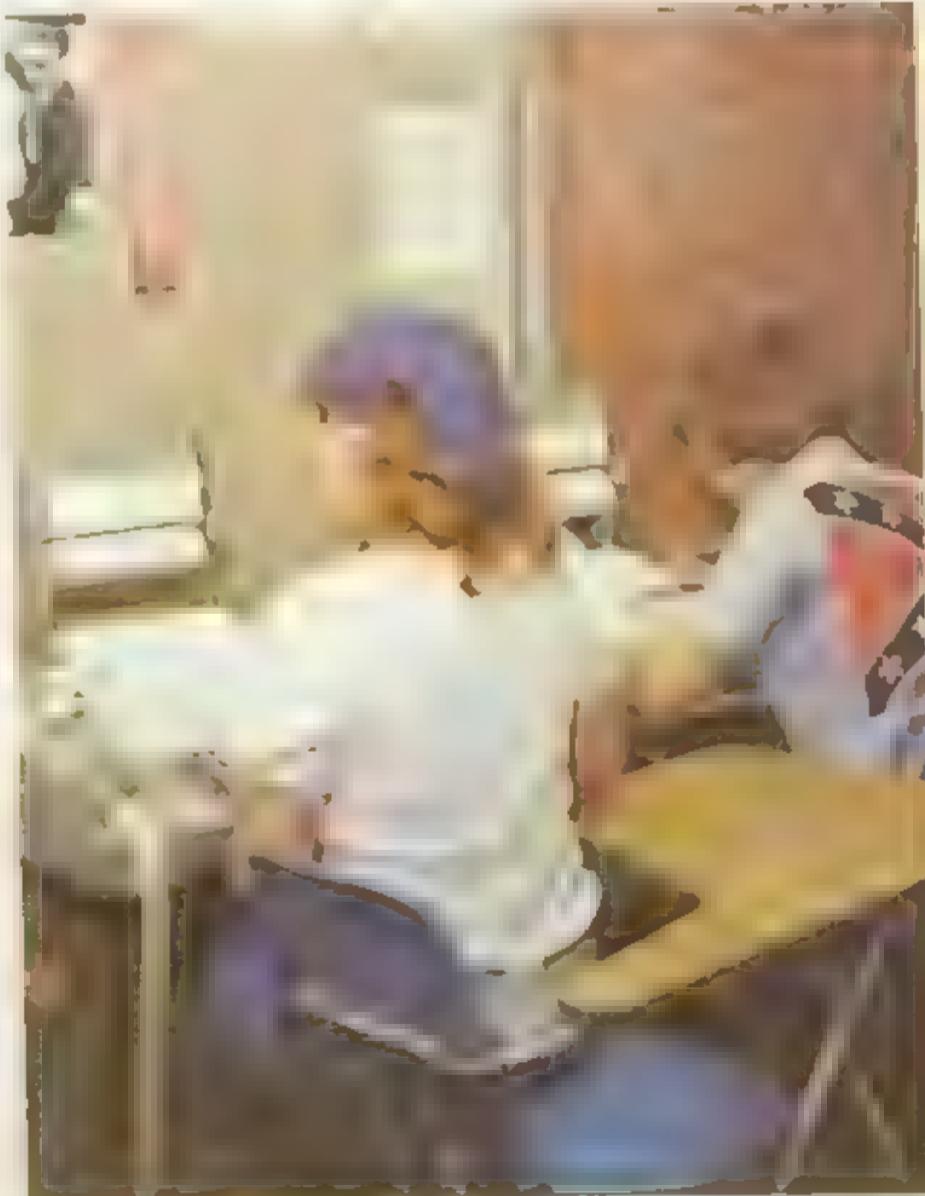

What Is A

School is a beginning,
A place for us to share.
But a student's life reaches out
To things for which we care.

There are sunny days, holidays,
and vacations of all sorts.
Where we can share our lives together
at dances and during sports.

We have clubs and dates,
and jobs that can't wait.
Out of all the games we play,
it is our friends that lead the way.

This is a student's life,
This and much, much more.
Our days in school are very short
With so much to learn and explore.

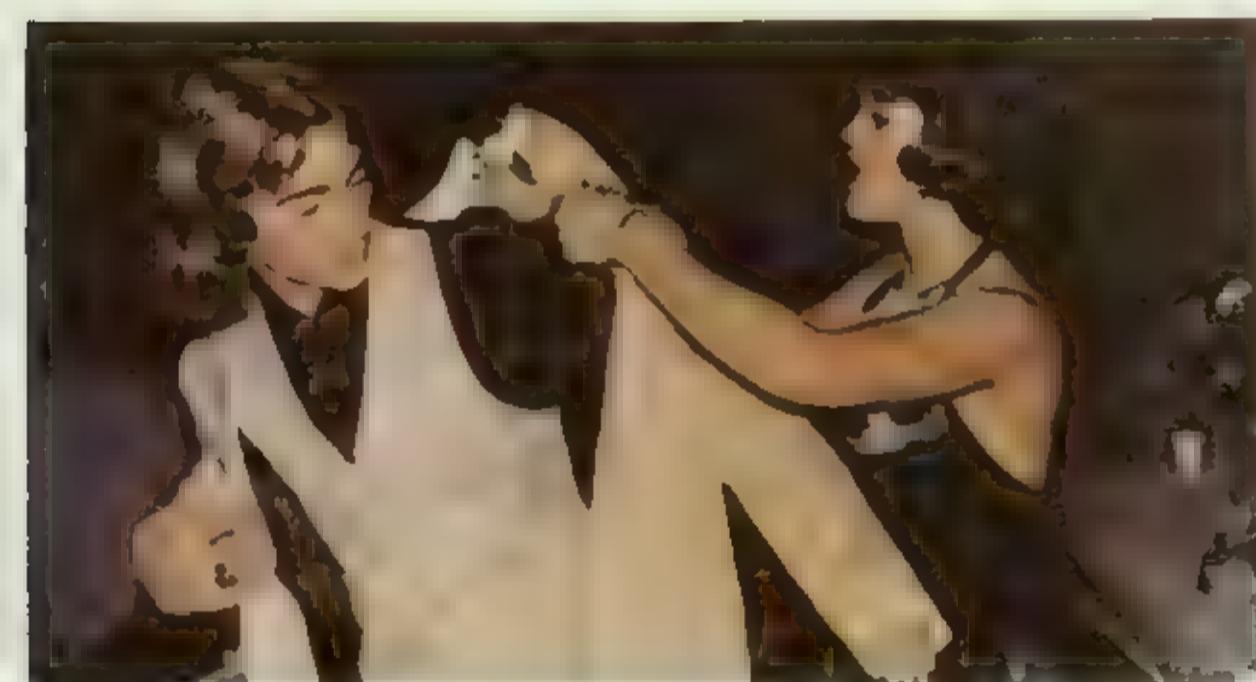

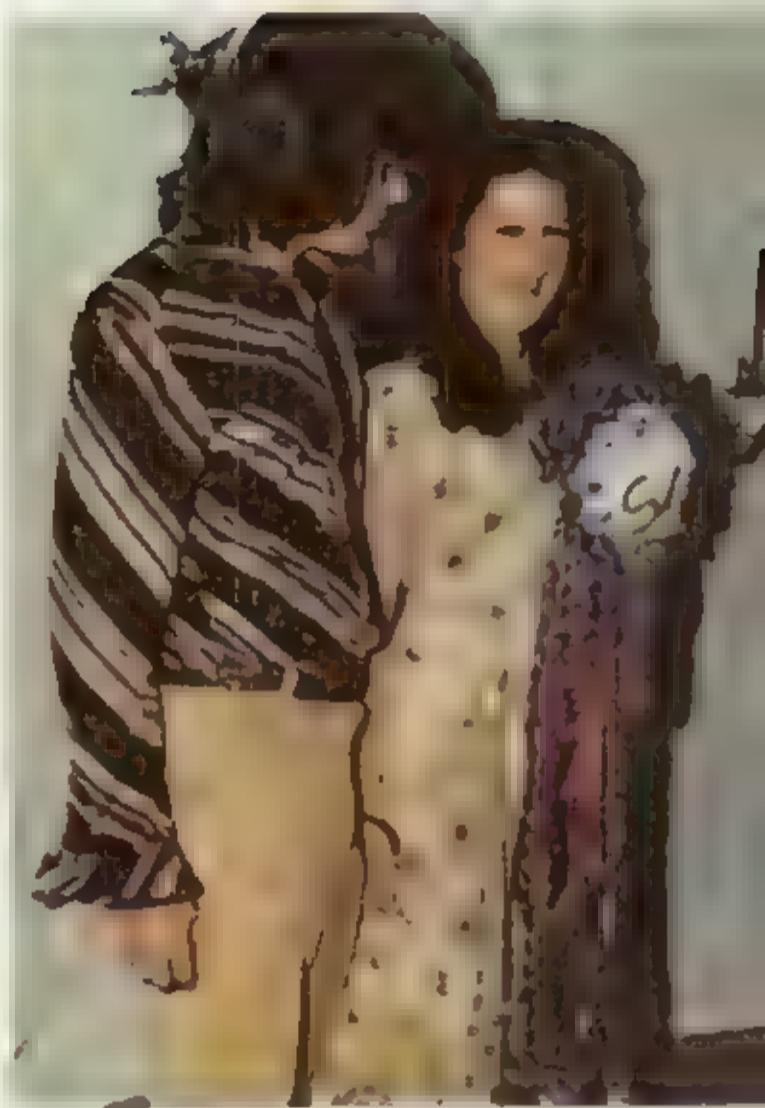

Student's Life?

Hollywood Homecoming

Stars At SG

"Hollywood" was the theme of the 1976 South Garland Homecoming. The entire week before was filled with excitement. From the very first day there was a distinct feeling in the air. All of the students looked forward to that big Homecoming game in which SG whipped Mesquite (17 to 13). During halftime Jan Weis was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1976. Her court included Deidra Dodson, Kari Kennedy, Shelly Kimbrell, Chris Johnson and Darla Lowe. The Band, Belles and Dixies carried out the Homecoming theme of Hollywood with their performance during halftime.

Saturday night was the big night. Many of SG's couples participated in the 1976 Coronation Ball

Students Take First Break

During Labor Day Weekend

During the first holiday of the 1976-1977 school year many students such as Band and Belles performed for the first time in the Labor Day Parade. Many students observed the parade, but even more attended the Jaycee Jubilee which lasted throughout the weekend.

Ready For The World

Education in vocational fields is one of the newest and fastest growing areas of education at South Garland. Many students are now taking courses that prepare them for future jobs. These students are getting experience at a job while going to school at the same time.

Students Work

Many SG students not only spend a full day at school but spend their spare time at a job. Some students are using their money for varied activities such as football games and dances while others are saving toward a college education. These students must also decide whether they wish to make this a lifetime profession or aspire to a higher education.

Hobbies Are

For Everyone

Everybody has a hobby, recognized or not. All girls talk and boys eat, almost constantly. Of course, there are the traditional hobbies: sports, art, music, crafts, and the not so traditional: flying and whale harpooning in the North Atlantic. Exotic or ordinary, most SG students participate in one hobby or more.

It's Great To

Be A Girl

The girls of South Garland High School have made many advances in the past few years. The athletic department has recently expanded to include such activities as volleyball, basketball, and soccer, in addition to the traditional activities of track and swimming. Girls have also become more participatory in student government and in clubs and organizations.

All The World's

"Much Ado About Nothing," one of William Shakespeare's most famous comedies, was performed on November 18, 19, and 20, 1976 by the Drama Department of South Garland High School. In the starring roles were Randy Garrett — Leonato, the Governor of the city, Cindy Hartzell — Hero, his daughter, and Cathy Gee — Beatrice, his niece.

Others who had major roles in the play included John Willmon, John Montgomery, Shel Suter, Robert Box, Aaron Kirby, Mark Brown, and Daaron Wheeler.

S. G. In

Harmony

There were many assemblies at South Garland this year. Some of them were back-to-back with a period eliminated, and some were presented only once. Some, such as Rick Presley and Sparky's Music Echo, required a small sum, while others, such as the Great American Teenager and the girls' choirs Christmas program, were free. The assemblies began in September with the Freshman and Sophomore class elections, and continued with presentations throughout the year by Balfour to both the Junior and Senior classes. The Juniors were given the opportunity to choose their class rings, and the Seniors were given the opportunity to choose their invitations and caps and gowns. The assemblies ended in May with the Senior Assembly and the presentation of the yearbook to the student body by the South Garland Sabre Staff

School Days . . .

Those Golden Rule Days

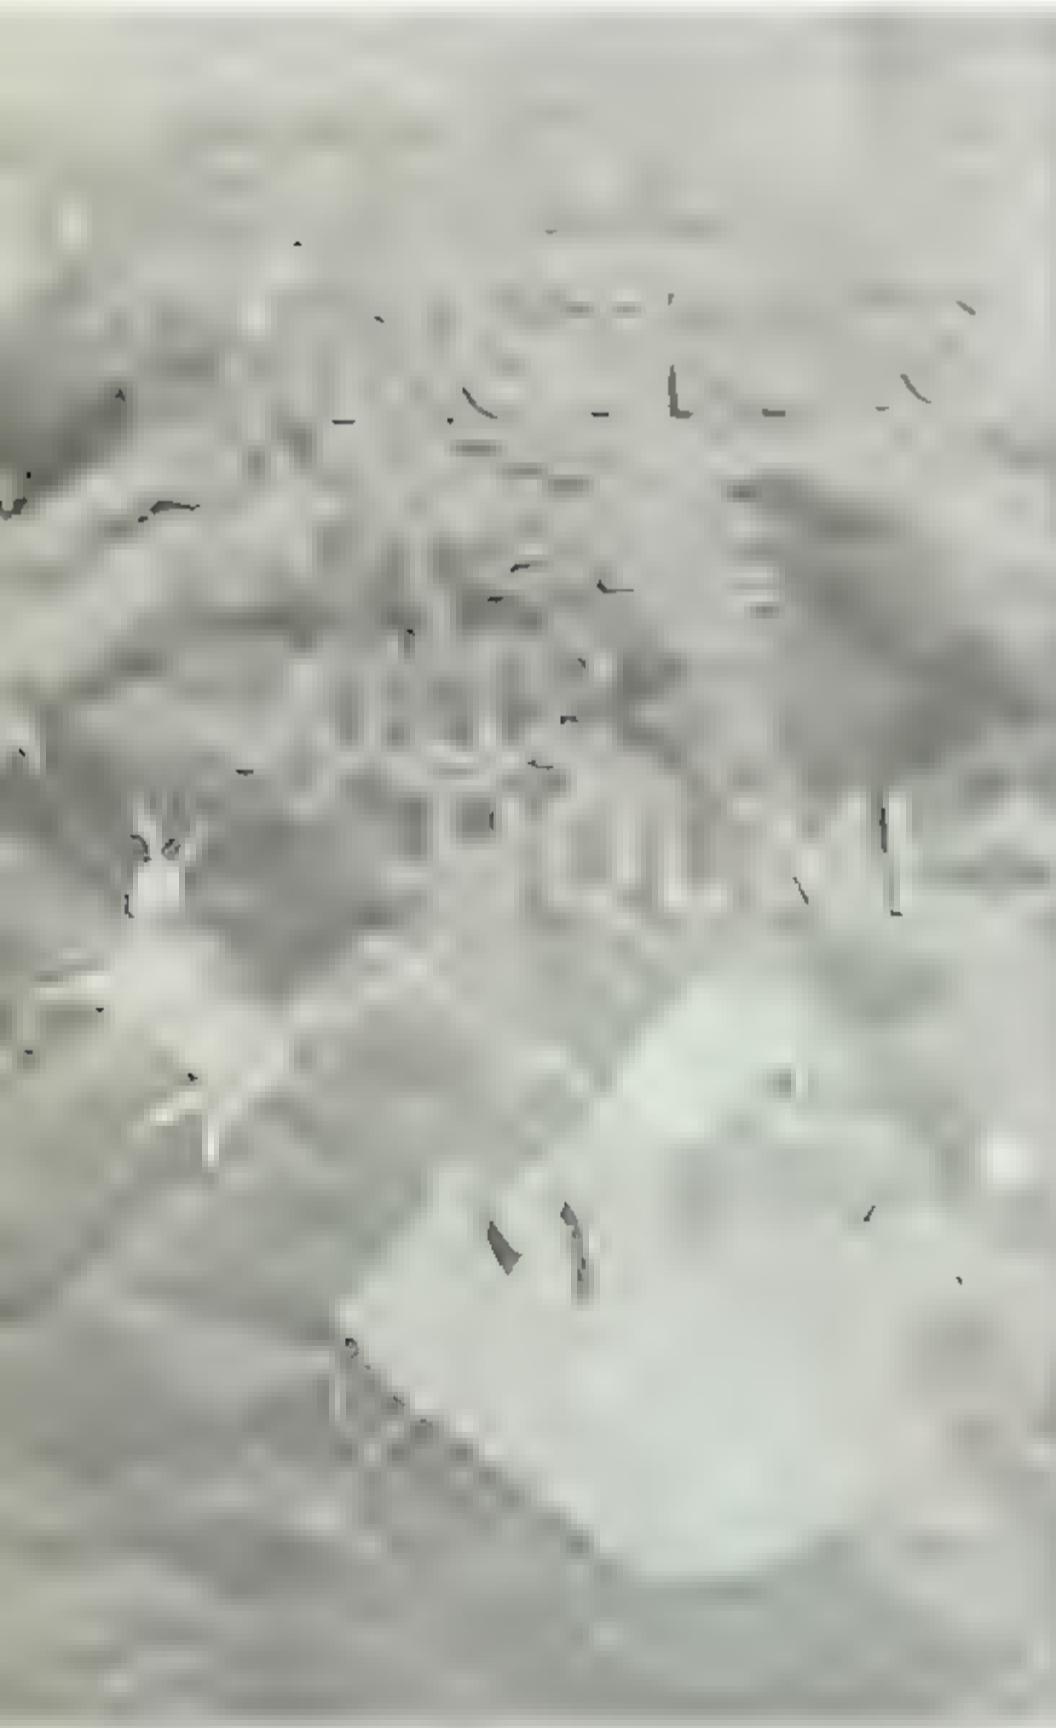

School days . . . those golden rule days that leave us with so many memories; memories of math tests, English essays, history reports, long lunch lines, and Monday blues. They are memories that will give us cause for reflection as the year passes, and they are memories that will remain with us forever.

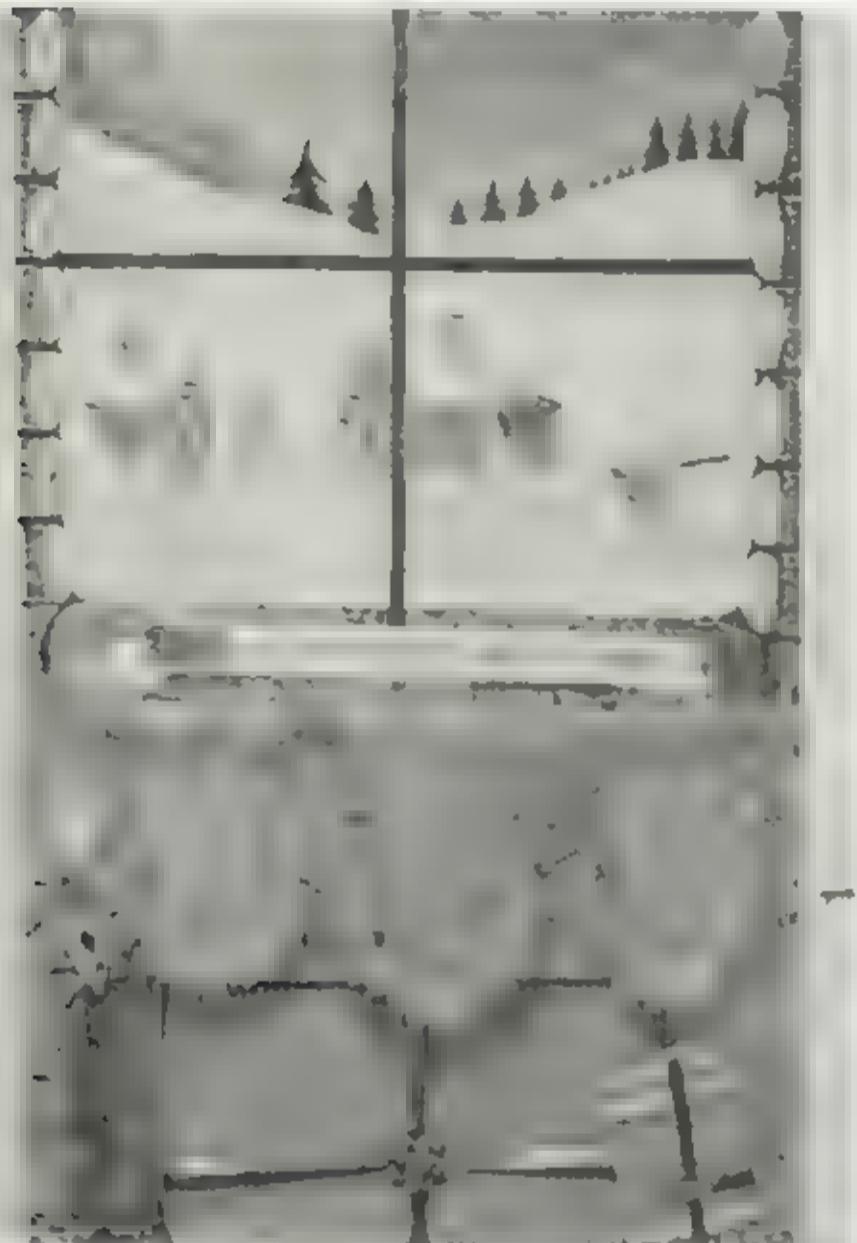

"God Rest Ye

Christmas was a merry time for many S.G. students this year. It began early for the Seniors, who sponsored their annual Christmas Party for underprivileged children on December 4. For the Key Clubbers, though, Christmas was a month-long occasion as they collected toys and canned goods for the needy.

For many, Christmas was also a time of sharing and giving. Students exchanged gifts with each other, and foreign language carolers could be heard singing through the halls. On the final day of school, the combined girls' choir presented a special program singing such favorites as "Silent Night" and "The First Noel."

Friends: Working Together

Playing Together

Friends are the people who make life at school more enjoyable. They are there while you work and play.

Remember that one special someone you always sat with at lunch? Or the one you spent half of your math class with up at the teacher's desk because neither of you understood the assignment? How about the ones you could really be crazy with or the ones in sports? Or the really special friend that was always there?

Though you go out into the world and leave school behind, the friends you made at South Garland will always be remembered. The fun times and the sad were created there with your special friends.

The Colonel Ball — An

On February 5th, S.G. Students blew into the "Winter Wonderland" of the Colonel Ball. The evening began with the procession of the Colonel Ball Nominees and their escorts, and continued with the presentation of awards and honors to outstanding students by Master and Mistress of Ceremonies, Steve Penson and Laura Coleman. The evening was highlighted by performances by the South Garland Showboaters and Stage Band.

Occasion For Celebration

Dancing Through A

It was a grand time for all at the Colonel Ball this year. S.G. students stepped in time to the music of New Brotherhood, who played such favorites as "Walk This Way" and "Shake Your Booty." Special effects in the Ballroom were created by a mirror-ball, and a ski lodge in the center of the dance floor, which echoed the theme of "Winter Wonderland."

Of Change

The world's state may be getting worse every day, but South Garland High's is only getting better. As the seasons go by year after year, South Garland's students develop more pride and spirit — for every season, love for South Garland High grows deeper. That is known to all.

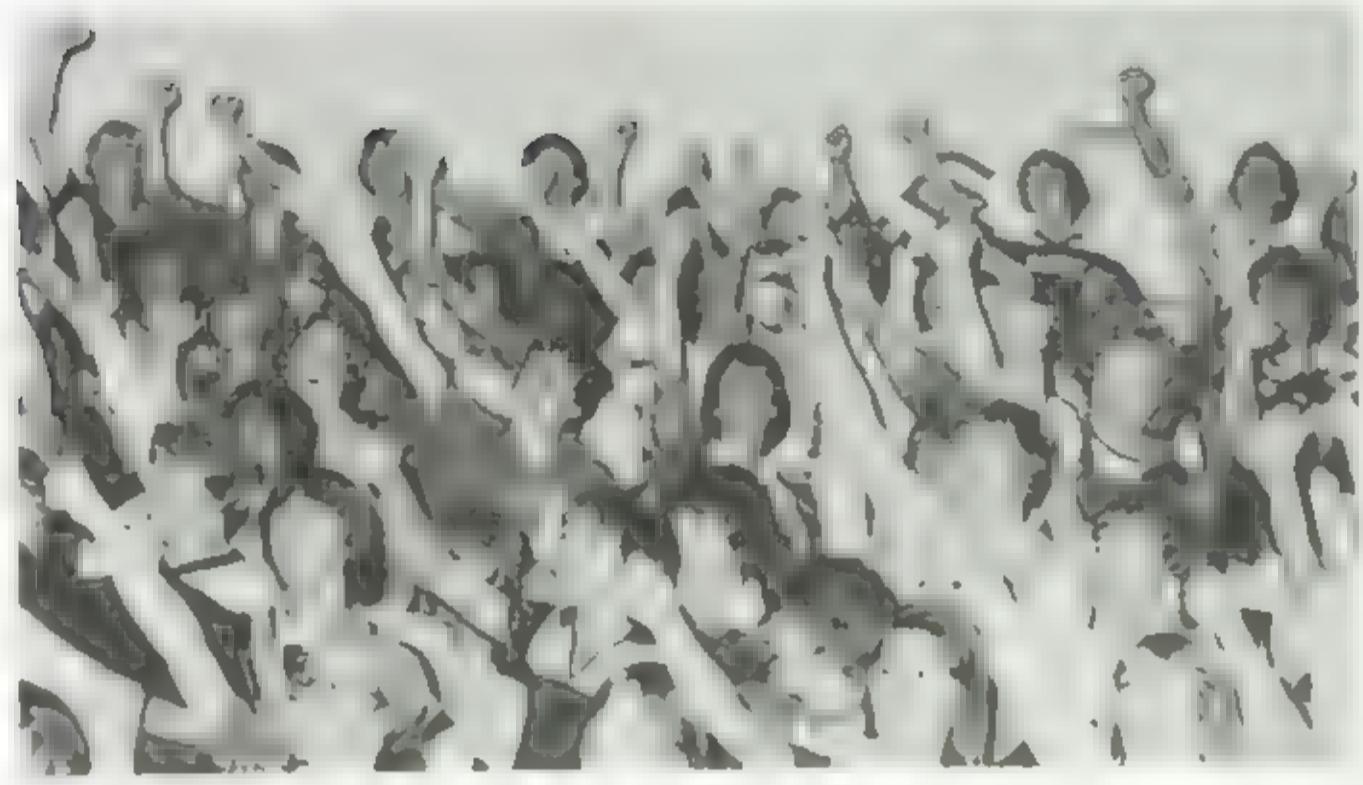

United We Stand,

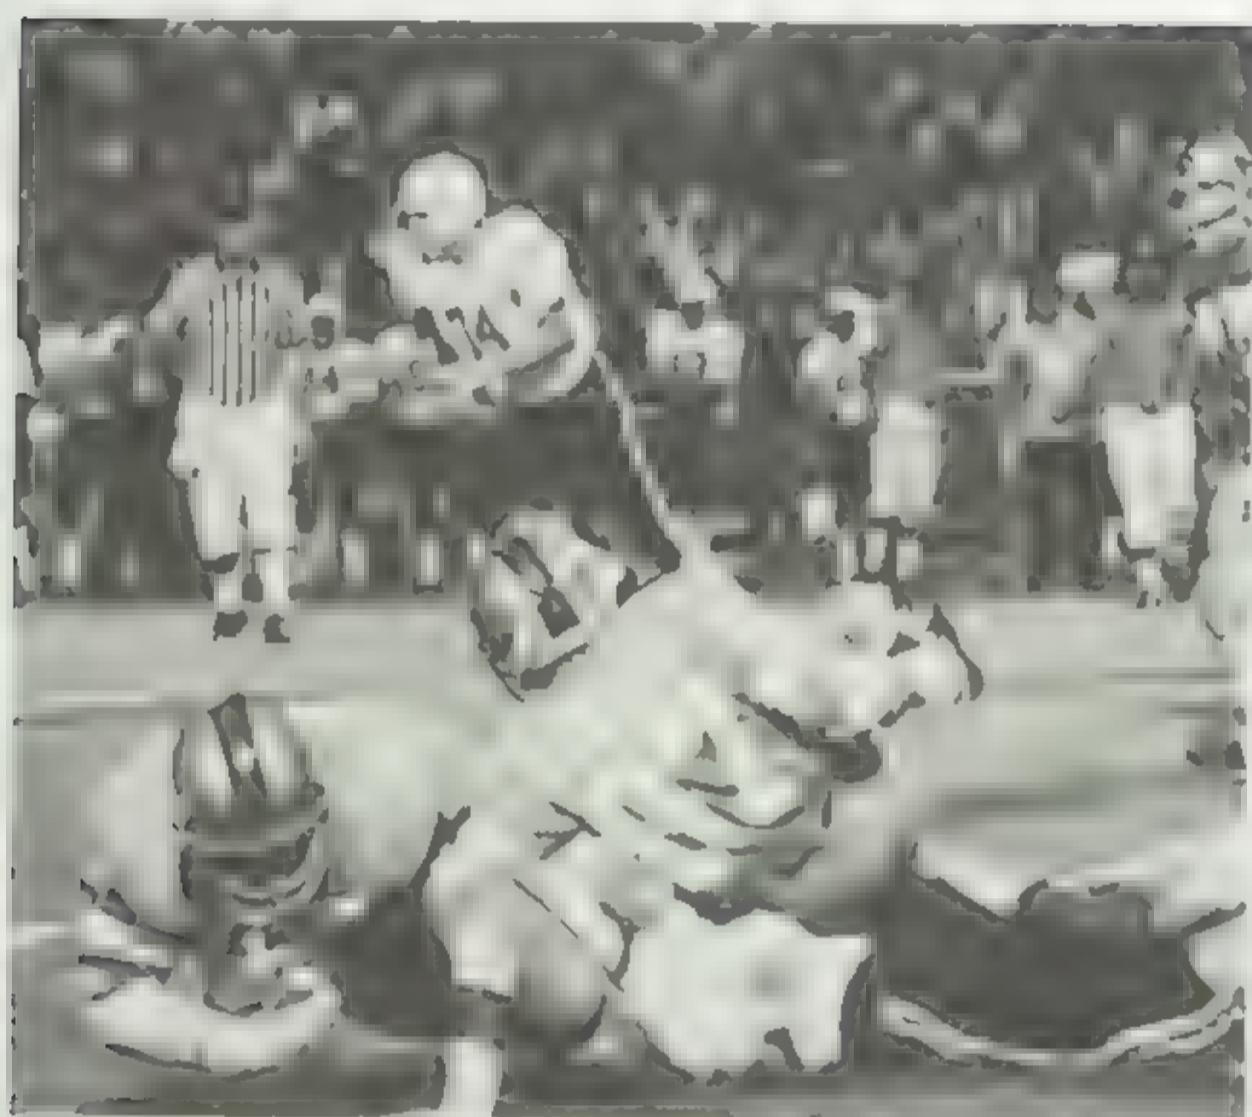

The students of South Garland High School have contributed much to the life and vitality of the school. They have each, individually and cooperatively, participated in the school's many activities and functions. Their participation has resulted in the enrichment of both themselves and their school.

We Are One

The South Garland Colonel Spirit has always been best exemplified by the enthusiasm of the student body. In the past, the student body had the necessary pride that allowed the school to obtain many outstanding honors and achievements. Today the Colonel Spirit continues to make its presence felt in many ways: through assemblies, pep rallies, intramural sports, interscholastic competition and through the daily presence of each individual student.

In The Spirit

Spring — The Fever's

As the year neared its end, spring fever infected S.G. students with contagious rush. The dreaded, virulent disease, commonly referred to as Senioritis, affected not only Seniors, but underclassmen as well. In many cases, students put their books aside in favor of rest and relaxation. However, a diligent few did maintain the appearance (at least) of studying and learning.

We . . . In Unison

Of all the spirit throughout the world 'tis none like Southern Pride
For the South Garland Colonels, the mightiest and the best our love has never died. For year after year our dedication grows, built on honesty and trust. Never we falter no pity for foe, to build our trust we must. So with patriotism in our hearts, to the world we must cry,
"To the best school of all, Hail! South Garland High."

Rebels we stand, with Spirit we fall But always together, one and for all

The Band Officers are a vital part of the organization. They help make decisions involving dress, fund raising projects, and parties. They give the band a representative voice in their affairs.

The All Region Band tryouts are held during December. The instrumentalist is required to play prepared music and also sight read for three judges. If a student places high enough in the band, he is eligible to attend Area tryouts. This year Jerry Harvey attended the tryouts and placed very high in the Area Band.

South Garland fans were a bit skeptical at the beginning of the season. With two losses things looked pretty bad but, as the season progressed, the Colonels made an amazing comeback winning all but one of their district games. The Colonels again proved their ability and willingness to win.

The Colonels always seemed to be in the right places at the right time as only experience can produce. Furthermore, they never seemed to fall behind in the second half, as they took or held the lead, not giving up to the call of defeat.

In Memory Of Our Friend, Gerard Trahan

I'm gonna miss you.
You made me seem so worthwhile
You brought out the best in me.
You used me.
Used me to spread your love and your smile to everyone.
That love and those smiles were returned,
But how sad that those faces no longer smile,
Those same faces are lined with pain, and those same eyes
are filled with tears.
From somewhere deep down in our souls, a cry of anguish
peals loudly and persists mercilessly.
Yet somehow we know that you know you'll live on in our hearts forever and ever.
I'm really gonna miss you Gerard.

Yours Forever,
Life
